Tips & Tools

UC

UC Transfer Requirements

- 60 semester units of transferable coursework
- Coursework for intended major with minimum grades
- Transferable GPA of at least 2.4 (non-resident, 2.8) SOME CAMPUSES REQUIRE A HIGHER GPA FOR ADMISSION SELECTION
- Pattern of a 7 UC-transferable college courses, passing with a grade C or better. See your counselor for more information.

Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG)

- Guaranteed admission to a participating UC (Davis, Irvine, Merced, Riverside, Santa Barbara, Santa Cruz)
- Receive early review of your academic records, early admission notification, and specific guidance about major preparation & general GE coursework
- Counseling & Transfer Center can help you with TAG
- Create a TAP account now, as it will turn into TAG later. See the “Plan your Pathway” section to the right.

Selective/Impacted Majors

Majors that are selective receive more qualified applicants than spaces available. Also known as screening or high-demand majors. These majors may use additional criteria for admission such as: specific courses, supplemental applications, and/or involvement in the interest area (i.e. clubs, activities, volunteering, etc). See a counselor or transfer staff for advice about selective majors.

Facts & Stats

- 9 universities across California. 7 on quarter system, Berkeley and Merced are on the semester system.
- 3 out of 4 transfer students who apply to a UC get in.
- Among the highest starting salaries in the country for graduates.
